The navy blue and red jerseys have been officially dropped from the Baseball Canada dress code and are not to be worn at any National Championship.

Umpiring Game Crews must be dressed in the same manner (i.e. – everyone wears the same color hat and jersey.) If wearing jackets, the base umpires must be identical in whether or not s/he wears one. The plate umpire still has the option. Plate coats with no crests and no numbers may be worn.

Indicators – plate umpire only is to utilize an indicator during the course of a ball game.
