VENUE

The home of UrbanAmish Interiors, LOFTRAUM is a city of Toronto heritage-designated building located in the designer district at Adelaide St. and Parliament St. Built in the 1800's it is a classic example of the exposed brick and beam architecture of the time. It once housed the Toronto Telegram newspaper founded in 1876 by John Ross Robertson, a philanthropist, federal politician and member of Canada's Hockey Hall of Fame. This charming atmosphere in historic Corktown is home to an authentic hard conversion loft style event facility complete with gorgeous hardwood flooring, exposed brick interiors and original distressed wooden beams circa 1880. Highlighted by a modern and stylish steel and glass staircase which connects to the upper levels, the space also features soaring 12ft ceilings.
